

A. JAIN

Something everlasting.

Proudly made in the U.S.A.

Founded by Creative Director, Abeer Jain, A. Jain is a brand forged by a scion of three generations of premier gemstone manufacturers. The creation of each A. Jain piece is guided by a deeply held appreciation for mother earth's natural beauty, from design inception to final product.

This respect and admiration was instilled in Abeer from birth by his forefathers, through a superior knowledge of gemstone cutting and polishing, a taste for elegance, an eye for timeless design, and an appreciation for the earth's natural gifts.

Since he was a child, Abeer has prized gemstones and diamonds—not just for their beauty but for their endless diversity in color, form, and personality. This love of gemstones is the foremost guiding principle of the A. Jain brand.

A. Jain product lines pay homage to Abeer's forebears and each piece, carefully crafted around the gemstone, is a tribute to the wondrous beauty of the natural world.

Eden

Ancient and pristine. Abundant and giving. A natural garden paradise.

Eden, named after the gardens of fable, is a signature stone cut used in the A.Jain product line. Look closely into your Eden stone and you will see how the cut was inspired by the paradises of ancient myth—all the facets in the gemstone align to form a flower in bloom, opening up its petals to catch the first rays of morning sunshine, to then shimmer in the moonlight of evening sky. Our hand-cut, and polished stones exude a brilliance of shine and color matched only by the heavenly flowers in the garden of Eden.

The Timeless Collection

Timeless. Enduring.
Faithful. True.

Our Timeless collection was inspired primarily by our Eden cut and is coupled with our signature intertwining “marquis weave” motif design. Timeless represents the values of our brand: legacy, fortitude, patience, ageless style, and enduring quality. Like people, each piece in the collection is unique; each designed to showcase individuality through the diversity of form and color. Our stones are meant to be adorned and admired, to highlight the unique personality of the wearer.

As with all of our collections, the gemstones and diamonds of our Timeless collection allude to something classic and enduring—the very symbol of human emotion and expression. Furthermore, our beautiful gemstones are perfectly paired with our intricate “marquis weave”—inspired by classic European art and architecture—to show the promise of love everlasting.

In the radiant personality of each piece, with our enduring craftsmanship, centered around the perennial quality of our gemstones—each, millenia old—we welcome you to find your own timeless paradise.

FAQ

Each A. Jain piece is handcrafted by dedicated artisans in the United States, using ethically sourced and conflict-free, natural gemstones and diamonds from around the world.

Each of our colored stones has been hand sourced and manufactured by the Jain family's gemstone manufacturing company; a company responsible for sourcing, manufacturing, and supplying tens of millions of fine quality, natural colored stones to the jewelry industry for over 30 years. Abeer's family business has and continues to serve as the primary gemstone manufacturer and vendor to many of the largest fine jewelry brands and luxury jewelry houses today.

Each of the diamonds used in our pieces have been hand selected to be of the colorless grade (D, E, F) with Flawless to VS clarity grades using the highest and strictest standards of selection from only United States-based vendors.

All metals used in A. Jain product lines consist of Rhodium Plated .925 Sterling Silver, 18-Karat Gold, or 950 Platinum in purity standards.

Found in partner
retailers nationwide.
